THE MOST HONOURABLE ORDER OF THE BATH.

Instituted in 1399. Revived in 1725. Enlarged in 1815 and 1847.

On the 2nd of Jan. 1815, it was declared that, "for the purpose of commemorating the ausp termination of the long and arduous contest in which this empire has been engaged," the order s be composed of three classes, and on the 14th April, 1847, it was further extended by the additi civil knights commanders and companions, on which occasion new Statutes were promulgated fo government of the Order, and the number of members declared as follows, viz.,

1st Class—to consist of knights grand cross; number not to exceed, for the military service exclusive of the Sovereign and princes of the blood royal, and such distinguished foreigners as m nominated honorary knights grand cross; and twenty-five for the civil service.

2nd Class—Knights commanders, numbers not to exceed for the military service, one hundre twenty-three, and for the civil service eighty, exclusive of foreign officers, who may be admitt honorary knights commanders. In the event of actions of signal distinction, or of future war numbers may be increased of this as well as of the third class. The members of the second class are en to the distinctive appellation of knighthood, after having been invested with the Insignia; to precedence of Knights Bachelors; to wear the badge, &c., pendent by a red ribbon round the nec star embroidered on the left side.

3rd Class—Companions of the Order, to consist, for military service, of six hundred and f and for the civil service of two hundred and fifty; they are to take precedence of esquires, but n entitled to the appellation, style, &c., of knights bachelors. To wear the badge assigned to the class, pendent by a narrow red ribbon from the the left breast. No officer can be nominated to the mi division of the third class of the Order, unless his services have been marked by special mention name as having distinguished himself in action against the enemy. This class has never been con upon any officer below the rank of major in the army and commander in the navy.

The Badge for the Military Classes of the Order is a gold Maltese cross, of eight enamelled, argent; in the four angles, a lion passant-guardant, or; in the centre, the rose, thistle shamrock, issuant from a sceptre between three imperial crowns, or, within a circle, gules; there motto of the Order, surrounded by two branches of laurel, proper, issuing from an escrol, azure, ins Ich Dien (I serve), in letters of gold. It is worn by the grand crosses pendent from a red ribbon the right shoulder, by the knights commanders from the neck, and by the companions from the b hole.

The Collar is of gold (weight, thirty ounces Troy weight), and is composed of nine imperial c and eight roses, thistle, and shamrock, issuing from a sceptre, enamelled in their proper colours, t linked together with seventeen gold knots, enamelled white, having the badge of the Order pe therefrom.

The Star of the Military Grand Crosses is formed of rays or flames of silver, thereon Maltese cross, and in the centre, within the motto, branches of laurel, issuant as in the badge.

The Civil Knights Grand Crosses retain the old badge and star of the Order. The Sta silver, formed with eight points or rays, charged with three imperial crowns, proper, upon a glory of rays, surrounded with a red circle, upon which is the motto of the Order. Their badge is of gold, com of a rose, thistle, and shamrock, issuing from a sceptre between three imperial crowns, encircled b motto. The civil knights commanders wear the same badge, of a smaller size, round the neck by bbon, and the civil companions the same, but of a still smaller size, from the button-hole, penden a red ribbon.

The Star of the Knights Commanders is in the form of a cross-patée of silver, having the centre as the grand crosses, but without a gold Maltese cross thereon. The star of the civil k commanders is of the same form and size, only omitting the laurel wreath round the circle containi motto and the escrol with the words, "Ich dien" underneath.

OFFICERS OF THE ORDER.

Dean of he Order—Dean of Westminster.

Bath King of Arms—Adm. Lord Frederic Kerr.

Registrar and Secretary—Sir Albert W. Woods, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., Garter King of Arms Heralds' College.

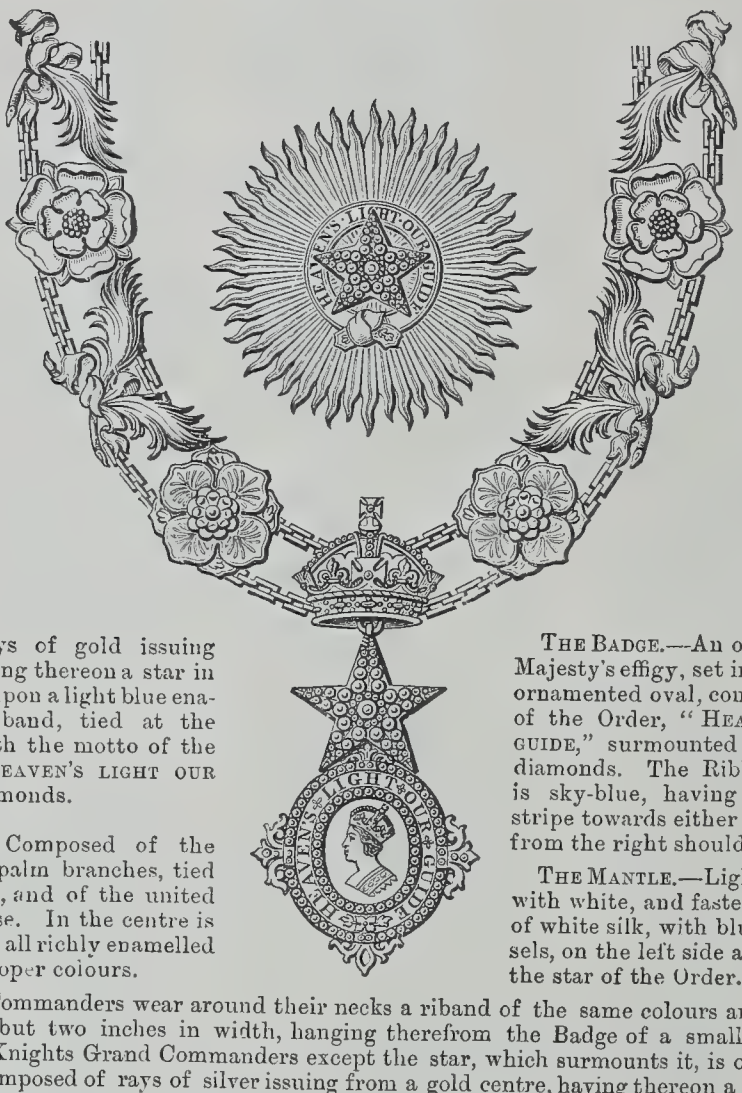
Gentleman Usher of the Scarlet Rod—G. C. Barrington, Esq., C.B.

THE MOST EXALTED ORDER OF THE STAR OF IND

Instituted by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, February 23rd, 1861, and enlarged, March 28th, 1866 and 1876.

The Order consists of the Sovereign, a Grand Master, and 205 Ordinary Companions or Me together with such Extra and Honorary Members as Her Majesty, her heirs and successors from time to time appoint. The 205 Ordinary Members are divided into three Classes:—th Class are styled Knights Grand Commanders, and to consist of thirty Members; the s Class to consist of seventy-two Members, to be styled Knights Commanders; the third Cl consist of one hundred and forty-four Members, to be styled Companions. Her Majesty's Vi and Governor-General of India for the time being is Grand Master.

The statutes enable the Sovereign to confer the dignity of Knight Grand Commander of the Order Princes and Chiefs of India as shall have entitled themselves to her Majesty's favour, and upon su her Majesty's British subjects as have, by important and loyal services rendered by them to the I Empire, merited the Royal favour; and the second and third Classes upon persons who, by their co for services in the Indian Empire, have merited the Royal favour.



THE STAR.—Rays of gold issuing from a centre, having thereon a star in diamonds, resting upon a light blue enamelled circular riband, tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order, viz.:—"HEAVEN'S LIGHT OUR GUIDE," also in diamonds.

THE COLLAR.—Composed of the lotus of India, of palm branches, tied together, in saltier, and of the united Red and White Rose. In the centre is an imperial crown; all richly enamelled on gold, in their proper colours.

THE BADGE.—An onyx cameo of Majesty's effigy, set in a perforated ornamented oval, containing the m of the Order, "HEAVEN'S LIGHT GUIDE," surmounted by a star all diamonds. The Ribbon of the O is sky-blue, having a narrow wh stripe towards either edge, and is w from the right shoulder to the left s

THE MANTLE.—Light blue satin, li with white, and fastened with a cor of white silk, with blue and silver sels, on the left side a representatio the star of the Order.

The Knights Commanders wear around their necks a riband of the same colours and pattern as t of the First Class, but two inches in width, hanging therefrom the Badge of a smaller size than t appointed for the Knights Grand Commanders except the star, which surmounts it, is of silver; on th left breast a star composed of rays of silver issuing from a gold centre, having thereon a silver star rest upon a blue enamelled circular riband, tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order.

The Companions wear from the left breast a Badge of the same form as appointed for the Knig Commanders, but of a smaller size pendent to the like riband of the breadth of one inch and a half.

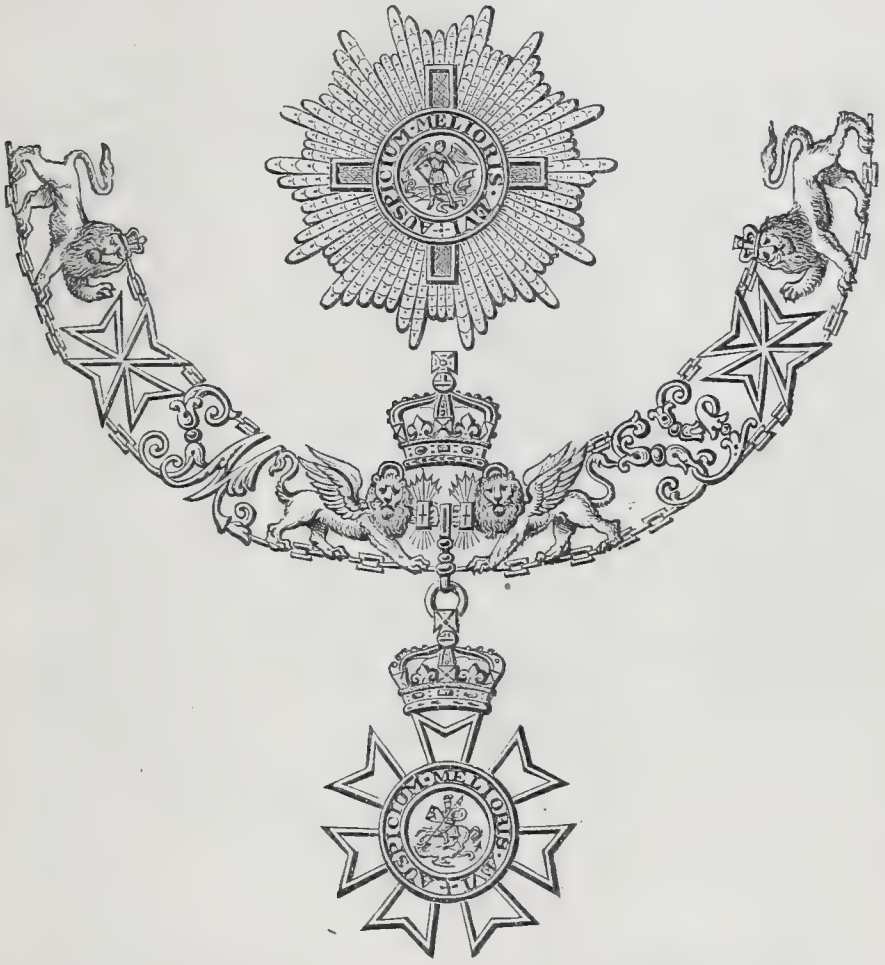
E MOST DISTINGUISHED ORDER OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.

uted 27th April, 1818, by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and enlarged and xtended 4th Dec. 1868, and 30th May, 1877, for the natural born subjects of the Crown of the United Kingdom as may have held or shall hold high and confidential offices within Her Majesty's colonial possessions, and in reward for services to the Crown in relation to the foreign affairs of the Empire, &c.

Order is to consist of not more than fifty Knights Grand Cross, exclusive of Extra and Honorary Members, one hundred and fifty Knights Commanders, and two hundred and sixty Companions.



THE members of the Order enjoy rank and precedency immediately after the corresponding classes ie Order of the Star of India; that is to say, the Knights Grand Cross after Knights Grand nanders of the Star of India; the Knights Commanders after the Knights Commanders of the of India; and the Companions after the Companions of the Star of India. The Grand Master is irst and Principal Knight Grand Cross. The Knights Grand Cross are entitled to bear supporters, o encircle their arms with the collar, ribbon, and motto of the Order. The Knights Commanders encircle their arms with the ribbon and motto; and the Companions suspend the badge of the to their arms.

HABIT AND INSIGNIA.

THE STAR of a Knight Grand Cross is composed of seven rays of silver, having a small ray of gold een each of them, and over all the cross of St. George, gules. In the centre is a representation of Archangel St. Michael encountering Satan, within a blue circle, inscribed with the motto, ICIUM MELIORIS ÆVI.

THE COLLAR is formed alternately of lions of England, of Maltese crosses, and of the ciphers S M G, having in the centre the imperial crown, over two winged lions, passant-guardant, each holding k, and seven arrows. At the opposite end of the collar are two similar lions. The whole is of except the crosses, which are of white enamel, and it is linked together by small gold chains.

HE BADGE is a gold cross of fourteen points of white enamel, edged with gold, having in the centre, ne side, the Archangel St. Michael, encountering Satan, and on the other, St. George on horseback, ntering a dragon, within a blue circle, on which the motto of the Order is inscribed. The Cross is ounted by the mperial crown, and is worn by the Knights Grand Cross to the Collar, or to a wide -blue ribbon, with a scarlet stripe from the right shoulder to the left side.

HE MANTLE is of Saxon-blue satin, lined with scarlet silk, tied with cordons of blue and scarlet silk gold, and has on the left side the star of a Knight Grand Cross.

THE CHAPEAU is of blue satin, lined with scarlet, and surmounted with white and black ostrich fe

THE KNIGHTS COMMANDERS wear the badge suspended to a narrower ribbon from the neck, an on their left side a star composed of four rays, with a small cross of eight points in saltire, of surmounted by the cross of St. George, gules, and having the same centre as the Star of the Grand C

THE COMPANIONS wear the small cross of the Order from a still narrower ribbon at the butt of their coats.

ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.

Instituted by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Empress of India, 21st of April, 1896.

Order consists of the Sovereign, Ordinary Members, and such Honorary Members as Her Majesty, ieirs and successors, shall from time to time appoint; the Members being divided into five classes, lesignated respectively:—Knights Grand Cross, Knights Commanders, Commanders, Members of ourth Class, and Members of the Fifth Class.

The persons to be admitted as Ordinary Members of this Order shall be such persons, being cts of the British Crown, as may have rendered extraordinary, or important, or personal, services er Majesty, her heirs and successors, who have merited Her Majesty's Royal Favour; and the orary Members of the several classes shall consist of those Foreign Princes and persons upon whom Majesty may think fit to confer the honour of being received into the Order.

The Members of the several grades in the Order are to have place and precedence as follows:— Knights Grand Cross, Knights Commanders, and Commanders, next to and immediately after the hts Grand Commanders, and Knights Commanders of The Most Eminent Order of the Indian ire. The Members of the Fourth Class, after the Companions of the said Most Eminent Order, he Members of the Fifth Class, after the Companions of the Distinguished Service Order. The ber of Members is unlimited, and the Anniversary of the Order is the Twentieth day of June of year, being the day of Her Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these Realms.

THE BADGE of Knights Grand Cross consists of a white enamelled Maltese cross, of eight points; n oval centre of crimson enamel the Royal and Imperial Cypher in gold; within, a blue enamelled e, thereon the motto of the Order, namely, "VICTORIA," in letters of gold, the circle being ounted by an Imperial crown enamelled in proper colours, and is worn over the right shoulder, ended from a dark blue riband with a narrow edge on either side of three stripes, red, white, and red, e breadth of three inches and three-quarters, passing from the right shoulder to the left side.

THE STAR of Knights Grand Cross consists of a silver chipped star of eight points; in the centre, a esentation of the Badge of the First Class of the Order.

The Knights Commanders wear around their necks a riband of the same colours as that of the hts Grand Cross, of the breadth of one inch and three-quarters, and pendent therefrom the Badge, h is of the same pattern as, but of smaller size than, that of a Knight Grand Cross. The Star is posed of a Maltese cross, in silver, with smaller rays issuing from the centre, between the angles of ross; in the centre, the badge of the Order as before described, with the cross in frosted silver ad of white enamel.

The Commanders wear around their necks the like riband and badge as that appointed for the hts Commanders, but are not entitled to wear the Star.

The Members of the Fourth Class wear a badge of the same form and appearance as that appointed he Commanders, but of smaller size, pendent to a riband of the same colours, of the breadth of one and a quarter, attached from the left breast.

The Members of the Fifth Class wear, from the left breast, the same riband and badge as that ointed for the Fourth Class, with the exception that the cross is of frosted silver instead of white nel.

under Our Royal Sign Manual; and a notification thereof shall be duly published in the "London Gaz

Lastly.—We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full power of annulling, alte abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with these regulations, or any part thereof, Notification under Our Royal Sign Manual.

Given at Our Court at Osborne, the twenty-fifth day of July, in the fifty-sixth year of Our R and in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

The Albert Medal.

Albert Medal was instituted by Royal Warrant, dated March 7, 1866, for the purpose of ding, by a mark of Royal favour, the many daring and heroic actions performed by mariners and to prevent loss of life, and to save the lives of those who are in danger of perishing by reason of recks and perils of the Sea.

Under this Warrant the Medal was confined to one Class, but it was found that many acts were med which were worthy of reward, but which were not of a character sufficiently daring and heroic ing them under the terms of the Warrant establishing the Decoration. The Warrant above oned was therefore revoked, and a new one issued on April 12, 1867, by which two new Decorations, respectively The Albert Medal of the First Class and The Albert Medal of the Second Class, instituted.

In April, 1877, by another Warrant, these Decorations were extended to cases of gallantry in nting loss of life from accidents in mines, on railways, and at fires, and other perils on shore.

The Decoration of the First Class for Saving Life at Sea consists of a gold oval-shaped Badge, elled in dark blue, with a Monogram, composed of the letters V and A, interlaced with an Anchor, in gold, surrounded with a Garter in bronze, inscribed in raised letters of gold, "For Gallantry aving Life at Sea," and surmounted by a representation of the Crown of H.R.H. the late Prince ort, and suspended from a dark blue riband of an inch and three-eighths in width, with four white longi- al stripes. The Decoration of the Second Class consists of the like-shaped enamelled Badge, t that in this Class it is entirely worked in bronze, instead of gold and bronze, and suspended a dark blue riband of five-eighths of an inch in width, with two white longitudinal stripes.

The Decoration of the First Class for Saving Life on Land consists of a gold oval-shaped Badge, elled in crimson, with a Monogram, composed of the letters V and A, erect in gold, surrounded a Garter in bronze, inscribed in raised letters of gold, "For Gallantry in Saving Life on Land," surmounted by a representation of the Crown of H.R.H. the late Prince Consort, and suspended a crimson riband of an inch and three-eighths in width, with four white longitudinal stripes. The ration of the Second Class is a similar shaped enamelled Badge, except that it is entirely worked in ze, instead of gold and bronze, and suspended from a crimson riband of five-eighths of an inch in h, with two white longitudinal stripes.

The Medals are worn suspended from the left breast, and the names of those upon whom they conferred are published in the "London Gazette."

Every additional act of bravery is recorded by a Bar being attached to the riband by which the al is suspended.

PRECEDENCE.

(E PEERS, BARONETS, AND KNIGHTS, AND THE COMPANIONS OF THE SEVERAL ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD, PLACED ACCORDING TO THEIR RELATIVE RANK.

RULES OF PRECEDENCE.

GENERAL REMARKS.

the thirty-first year of King HENRY VIII., Parliament, by statutory enactment, k cognizance of Precedence. It then passed the "Act for Placing the Lords," ch, although it concerned directly only the Great Officers of State, and referred incidentally to the places of the Nobility, has since been considered the chief hority for the marshalling of dignities. This Act was originated by the desire the King, and it is declared, as a preliminary, that although it appertained gether to the Royal Prerogative to give such honour, reputation, and placing is Councillors and others his subjects as should be seeming to the King's most ellent wisdom, the King was nevertheless pleased and contented for an order be had and taken in his Most High Court of Parliament for the placing of the at Officers and Lords. In addition to this Act of Parliament, the Scale of cedence is sustained by royal ordinances and ancient usage. The least interference, ess made by Royal or Parliamentary authority, would be destructive of the it of some one entitled to rank on the scale.

The Law of Precedence, though thus confirmed temp. HENRY VIII., dates from a more distant era than the Act "For placing the Lords." Regulations concerning vere officially issued at various periods long antecedent. The first, in point of date, s "The Order of all Estates of Nobles and Gentry of England," framed in 1339, l the last officially issued before the Statute of HENRY VIII., the series ordinum the reign of HENRY VII., which Coke considers of the highest authority. The tute of HENRY VIII. was in the nature of a declaratory Act, confirming the ancient l pre-existing Law of Precedence, and, in confirmation of this, it is a matter of torical fact that the advice of Garter King of Arms was taken before the bill was ught in.

The next important decrees of Precedence were those of King JAMES I., dated .2 and 1616. A dispute had arisen between Barons' and Viscounts' younger sons, l the then newly created order of Baronets, as to which should take the higher ce, and it was finally determined by the King himself in favour of the Peers' sons.

A leading principle of the Law of Precedence is that precedence emanates from her or husband, and cannot be derived from a female, unless in the case of a ress in her own right. The daughter and sole heiress of the first Duke of the gdom (unless a Peeress in her own right), would confer no higher precedence on son, than if she were the daughter of a simple citizen.

It is very difficult to determine when precedence, in the descendants of Dukes, nces of the Blood Royal, ends. Miles, in his Catalogue of Honour of the time JAMES I., a work of deep research, compiled from the MSS. of his uncle, the rned Robert Glover, Somerset Herald, at a period when the subject of precedence was much canvassed and considered, asserts that "Dukes descended of the Roy Blood," take place above Dukes not descended of the Royal Blood. How far Glov was borne out in this statement I have not been able to discover, but I must confes my own opinion is very much in accordance with his. At the Court of France, und the old régime, the Royal Family and its descendants were always first.

The question of the precedence of the Great Officers of State of Ireland an Scotland with reference to similar officers in England, is not provided for by the Ac of Union, and has never yet been definitely settled, unless, indeed, the placing of th Lord Chancellor of Ireland next to the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, at th Coronation of King William IV., be deemed a royal settlement of the poin Selden is of opinion that "The lists that show practice and custom in matters precedence, are seen in the published assemblies of the States and other solemnities Coronations, funerals, and the like."

RULES OF PRECEDENCE.

I.—Men of Official Rank, who have higher personal precedence, are plac according to that higher personal precedence.

II.—It is Men's rank that confers precedence and regulates State Ceremonial At the Queen's Courts, where husbands and wives pass Her Majesty together, th precedence of the husbands is that which is regarded.

III.—The Wives and Children of Great Officers of State and of all those who derive their places on the scale from official rank, have no consequ precedence, nor have the wives and children of Archbishops and Bishops.

IV.—A Lady, having precedence by birth (for instance, the daughter of a Pee Baronet, or Knight), retains her innate rank and precedence although married a Commoner, but if she be married to a Peer, her precedence is that of her husband.

V.—Widows of Peers, Baronets, and Knights, on marrying Commone continue by the etiquette of society, though not by law, to retain their titles a precedence. At a Coronation or other state ceremonial, widows of Peers who ha married Commoners are not summoned to attend; this rule was followed at t funeral of the Duke of Wellington. In society it is different, and the widows Peers, Baronets, and Knights, married to untitled Commoners, generally adhere the titles acquired by their first marriages, although the practice is not deriv from right. Widows of "Honorables" who subsequently marry Commoners (n sons of Peers), are not allowed, even by the etiquette of society, to retain the pre of "Honorable" after such subsequent marriages.

VI.—A Peeress in her own right does not lose her rank and precede by marriage or widowhood; if she be married to a Peer of higher degree than h own, she has her husband's precedence.

VII.—Daughters of Peers, Baronets, and Knights, and other persons dignity, rank next immediately after the wives of their eldest brothers.

VIII.—Dowager Peeresses, and Baronets' Widows take precedence of t wives of the existing Peers and Baronets of the same creations, from their bei senior in the dignity, from their husbands having been nearer the succession; instance, the Dowager Duchess of Beaufort has precedence of the wife of the pres Duke of Beaufort; and on the same principle of being nearer the succession, the s of an existing Peer has precedence above the son of a previous holder of the sa title.

IX.—Peers and Peeresses take rank among themselves, thus—I., of Englan II., of Scotland; III., of Great Britain; IV., of Ireland; and V. of the Unit Kingdom and of Ireland, created since the Union, according to the dates of t respective patents.

X.—Maids of Honour to Her Majesty the Queen take rank after Baro daughters, and are allowed the prefix of "Hon."

XI.—The Baronets of England, the Baronets of Ireland, the Baron of Scotland, the Baronets of Great Britain, and the Baronets of t United Kingdom, take rank among themselves according to the dates of th respective patents. The Act of Union of Great Britain and Ireland, which fix e precedence of the different orders of the Peerage, enacts no other precedence, or does it interfere with or disturb in the slightest degree any other forms of ecedence that might then have been in force. It is silent as to the English, ish, or Scotch Baronets, and consequently whatever precedence their original itents conferred, is not affected by that enactment. For instance, Sir Charles ote inherits a Baronetcy of Ireland, conferred in 1620, and, has, by right, the ecedence of that date. There is no law or statute to deprive him of it, or to ake him give place, for instance, to Sir Henry James Hawley, whose grandfather, enry Hawley, was created a Baronet of Great Britain in 1795. Some argue that the Act of Union fixed the precedence of the Peers of the Three Kingdoms, e precedence of the Baronets may be assumed by analogy; but surely no lawyer herald would admit the power of "analogy" to destroy a right derived by itent from the Crown.

XII.—Privy-Councillors of Great Britain and Privy-Councillors of Ireland, ke rank, inter se, according to the dates of their being sworn in.

XIII.—Ambassadors yield precedence only to members of the Royal Family of ie Court to which they are accredited, and to the sons and brothers of Crowned eads. Foreign Ministers and Envoys have no real claim to precedence. The iestion was raised and settled at the Congress of Vienna, in 1815, but of late years ace has been allowed them in this country, after Dukes and before Marquesses.

XIV.—Esquires—Armiger, or Esquire, is not, like those names given in the tatute 1 Edward VI., c. 7, s. 3, a name of dignity, but is (as is also, according Sir Edward Cooke, Gentleman or Yeoman) a name of worship, and cannot be tached to any of the dignities mentioned in the Statute of Edward VI. The ifferent classes to whom the title of Esquire belongs are:—

1. The sons of all the peers and lords of parliament during the lives of their fathers; the younger sons of peers after the death of their fathers; the eldest sons of the younger sons of peers and their eldest sons in perpetual succession.
2. Noblemen of other nations.
3. The eldest (and we think, if any, all the) sons of baronets, and the eldest sons of knights.
4. Esquires created expressly with a collar of SS., and spurs of silver—now obsolete.
5. Persons to whom the Queen gives arms by her own letters patent, with the title of Esquire.
6. Esquires of the Bath, and the eldest sons of those Esquires, pursuant to the statutes of the Order.
7. Barristers-at-law, by their office or profession.
8. Justices of the peace, and mayors, while in the commission, or in office.
9. Persons chosen Esquires to the body of the Prince—now obsolete.
10. Persons attending on the Sovereign's coronation in some notable employment, or persons employed in any superior office of trust (where they have discretionary power, and are not, such as clerks, merely ministerial) under the Crown, or serving in some place of better note in the Queen's household.
11. Persons who are styled Esquires by the Queen in their patents, commissions, or appointments, such as sheriffs of counties, or captains in the army and navy.
12. Attorneys in colonies, where the departments of counsel and attorney are united.

XV.—H.M. Lieutenant of a County and the High Sheriff of a County are given the first places in their own counties. Between the two the higher position appertains, in my opinion, to H.M. Lieutenant of a county.

SCALE OF GENERAL OR SOCIAL PRECEDENCE.

THE precedence here indicated is that which is known as general of social cedence, and is admitted on all occasions and in all society. The Clergy, the Bar, Military, and other classes have amongst themselves a certain relative rank; but relative rank is peculiar to each of these classes, and gives them no position on general or social scale. The following scale comprises those only who enjoy digni or (in case of men) official appointments coming within some one of the authorities cited of statute, patent, or usage.

The marks, or absence of marks show the authorities.

PRECEDENCE OF SPIRITUAL LORDS.

Archbishops.

Archbishops take precedence of all Dukes next to those of the Blood Royal. The Archbishop of Canterbury ranks as first lord, and the Archbishop of York as third coming immediately after the Lord Chancellor.

Bishops.

By an act of parliament passed in the thirty-first year of Henry VIII., it was settled that Bishops take precedence of all Barons, and immediately after Viscounts; the Bishops of London, Durham, and Winchester, preceding their Right Reverend brethren, who take rank among themselves according to seniority of consecration.

PRECEDENCE OF PRIVY COUNCILLORS.

Privy Councillors not being Peers or holding certain offices, are placed immediately after Knights of the Garter. In the Privy Council, all persons who have higher rank than that of Privy Councillor take precedence according to such higher rank. All who have no such higher rank take precedence according to the date of their being sworn into the Privy Council.

PRECEDENCE OF JUDGES, &c.

Special precedence is assigned to the Lord Chief Justice of England and the Master of the Rolls by virtue of their offices. The precedence of the other Judges (who take rank among themselves according to seniority of appointment) is as follows:—

Lords Justices of Appeal and the President of the Probate Divorce and Admiralty Divisions.

Judges of the High Court of Justice.

Judges of County Courts, Serjeants-at-Law, Masters in Chancery, and Masters in Lunacy follow the Knights Bachelors, and precede the Companions of the several Orders of Knighthood.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

(In force December, 1895.)

REGULATIONS ANNEXED TO THE VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY OF JUNE 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which ight again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the enipotentiaries of the powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the llowing Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other owned Heads to adopt the same regulation:

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the ight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 315.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries : Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

ROTOCOL OF CONFERENCE OF THE FIVE POWERS. AIX-LA-CHAPELLE, NOVEMBER 21, 1818. (MINISTERS RESIDENT.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a oint of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the nnex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is greed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, ith respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the econd Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

PRECEDENCE BETWEEN CONSULAR OFFICERS AND NAVAL AND MILITARY OFFICERS.

(In force December, 1895.)

Ich dien. I serve. Prince of Wales. The King of Bohemia, who fell at the battle of Crécy, had three ostrich feathers for crest, and this Ich dien for motto. The ensign and legend were adopted by the Black Prince,—the words, probably, on account of their apt allusion to the good service he did the day of that victory to his royal father and his country; and they have been continued by his successors, as a lasting memorial of his triumph. There is, however, a tradition at Windsor Castle that the motto is Welch, "Eich Deen," Here's the man, words used by Edward I., on presenting his new-born son to the Welshmen.

In Canopo ut ad Canopum. Louis, Bt. The sense of this legend is the most obscure in the whole list of mottoes. The following explanation has been suggested:—Canopus is the name of a city in Egypt (Gens fortunata Canopi, Virg. Georg. iv. v. 237), now Aboukir, a place celebrated during the Crusades. The word also signifies a fixed star of the first magnitude, in the constellation of Argus, and southern hemisphere (Sidus ingens et clarum, Plin. Hist. Nat. vi. 22). The motto may therefore have been assumed by a crusader, importing that to have fought for the cross in Egypt (in Canopo), was the road to heaven (ad Canopum, equivalent to ad astra)." Admiral Louis, however, having died on board the ship Canopus, another meaning, though perhaps somewhat similar is intended.

Lamh laidir an uachtar. The strongest hand is on high. Inchiquin, B. O'Brien, Bt. The literal translation of this motto is, "The strongest hand uppermost," but by an alteration of one letter in the last word it will mean, "The strongest hand is on high," or "in heaven;" and it has been so translated by the Barons of Inchiquin, whose motto is in French, "Vigueur de dessus."
Laimb deargh aboo. The red hand to victory. Magawly, Count.
Lamh dearg Eirin. The red hand of Ireland. O'Neill, B. There is a tradition that in an ancient expedition of some adventurers to Ireland, their leader declared that whoever first touched the shore should possess the territory which he reached, and that O'Neil, from whom descended the princes of Ulster, bent upon obtaining the reward, and seeing another boat likely to land, cut his left hand off and threw it on the coast. The red hand was adopted by James I., as the badge on instituting the order of Baronet. The design of the institution being the colonization of the province of Ulster, in Ireland, the arms of the province were seemed the most appropriate insignia.
Largs. Currie, Bt. This is an allusion to the battle of "Largs," 1263, where Adam de Currie, the friend of Wallace, fought heroically against Haco.

THIS Society was founded (in 1865) to investigate fully and impartially important questions of Philosophy and Science, and more especially those alleged to bear upon the great Truths revealed in Holy Scripture, with a view of reconciling any apparent discrepancy between Christianity and Science, so that hasty conclusions may no longer afford opportunity for unseemly attacks, on either hand, to the injury of both Religion and Science.

The Home, Foreign, and Colonial Members and Associates, 1,500 in number, may be divided into two classes: first, Workers, or leading men of learning and science, at home or abroad; and secondly, those desirous of being Supporters of a society with such aims.

The journal of Transactions is sent to all joining. (The Queen has accepted it for Her own library.) As regards the special subjects dealt with, the journal contains not the obinions of any one single individual, but those of many Members, diligent students of the subjects, resident in various countries.

The Fee for Membership is Two Guineas; for Associateship, One Guinea a year.

The Regulations for Candidates for admission may be had on application.

OBJECTS: The Reformation of Openly Immoral Women and the Guardianship and Training of Young Girls exposed to Danger.

For the carrying out of these objects Seven Homes are maintained, accommodating 200 inmates. A small Lock Hospital is supported. Maternity cases are also received.

Over Seventeen Thousand Young Women and Girls have already been welcomed within this "door of hope" from a course of sin, or circumstances of great danger, and thus helped to a better life.

Funds are earnestly solicited on behalf of this Reformatory and Preventive work.

Contributions will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the Secretary, Mr. C. STUART THORPE, to whom all Cheques and Money Orders (crossed "BARCLAY and Co.") should be made payable, and sent to the Offices of the Society, 79, FINSBURY PAVEMENT, LONDON, E.C.

FORM OF GIFT BY WILL.

I give to the "SOCIETY FOR THE RESCUE OF YOUNG WOMEN AND CHILDREN" (here insert in words the sum of money or other property, and if it is intended add the words "free from all taxes, duties, and other expenses"), and I direct the same to be paid to the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society, and the receipt of such Treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge therefor.

THE OBJECT OF THIS CHARITY is to gratuitously relieve with Surgical Advice poor ruptured Persons, recommended by Governors, by furnishing Trusses for every kind of Rupture, and Bandages and necessary Instruments for all cases of Prolapsus, and by performing every necessary operation.

About 10,000 Sufferers are annually supplied with the Instruments required for their relief.

Since the establishment of the Society over Half a Million (528,800) Patients have been benefited.

Additional Funds are greatly needed to meet the increasing demands on the Charity. Premises, recently enlarged, now provide a long-needed separate entrance and waiting-room for female patients, and there is a female attendant for them.

AN ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION OF ONE GUINEA entitles to Four Letters of Recommendation.

A LIFE SUBSCRIPTION OF FIVE GUINEAS entitles to Two Letters annually; and TEN GUINEAS, Four Letters.

Donations, Subscriptions, and Bequests are earnestly solicited, and will be gratefully received by the Bankers, LLOYDS' BANK, Limited, 72, Lombard Street; or by the Secretary, at the Offices of the Society.

CHLORODYNE

Is the Great Specific for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Dr. J. C. BROWNE (late Army Medical Staff) DISCOVERED A REMEDY to denote which he coined the word CHLORODYNE. Dr. Browne is the SOLE INVENTOR, and, as the composition of Chlorodyne cannot possibly be discovered by Analysis (organic substances defying elimination), and since the formula has never been published, it is evident that any statement to the effect that a compound is identical with Dr. Browne's Chlorodyne must be false.

This caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. PAGE WOOD stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was UNDOUBTEDLY the INVENTOR OF CHLORODYNE, that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to.—See The Times, July 13, 1864.

CHOLERA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH, London, REPORT that it ACTS as a CHARM, one dose generally sufficient.

Dr. GIBBON, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta, states, "TWO DOSES COMPLETELY CURED ME OF DIARRHŒA."

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is the true Palliative in NEURALGIA, GOUT, CANCER, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATISM.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a liquid medicine which assuages PAIN OF EVERY KIND, affords a calm refreshing sleep WITHOUT HEADACHE, and INVIGORATES the nervous system when exhausted.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE rapidly cuts short all attacks of EPILEPSY, SPASMS, COLIC, PALPITATION, HYSTERIA.

Burke's General Armory of England,

Scotland, Ireland, and Wales. Comprising a registry of Armorial Bearings from the earliest to the present time. This work contains above 66,000 Blazons of the Arms of Families, Companies, Cities, &c., with mottoes arranged in alphabetical order. This Work having engaged the personal attention of the Editor for a considerable period of time, will be found most valuable, not only to the Student of Heraldry and those personally interested in its pages, but to all who are brought into connection with the subject by their professions—such as Engravers, Silversmiths, Coach Builders, Die Sinkers, &c. Uniform with "The Peerage," "The Landed Gentry," &c. 1,280 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 12s. 6d.

"Its authority is unquestionable over the whole range of facts with which it deals; it is the most comprehensive collection ever presented to the world."—Saunders' Irish Daily News.

Burke's Landed Gentry of Great BRITAIN AND IRELAND, being a record of the Lineage, &c., of about 4,500 Families, with a description of their Arms, Crests, &c. EIGHTH EDITION. Thoroughly Revised throughout, 1894. This edition of the Landed Gentry has been compiled from communications made by the chiefs and heads of families from their private papers, traditions and genealogies. The great aim has been to arrive at accuracy, and, in order to attain this end, every available source of information has been exhausted, and a correspondence carried on which has secured many thousands of communications from those most competent to improve and correct the work. Apocryphal statements, which had crept into former editions, have been expunged, erroneous particulars and incorrect descents discovered and omitted, and some memoirs excluded as being no longer associated with the possession of landed property. In two volumes, uniform with "The Peerage," "General Armory," &c. 2,340 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £3 3s.

Burke's Peerage, Baronetage, Knight-

AGE, &c. for 1897. 59th EDITION. This Peerage and Baronetage is the only one extant which combines, in one volume, the full genealogical or past, as well as the present, account of all the Peers and Baronets of the realm. The Baronetage, incorporated with the Peerage, is complete in every detail as to the Lineage and present condition of each Baronet and his family. The Knightage has been much enlarged by the introduction of the family connections of the Knights of the several Orders of the Knights Bachelors and of the Members of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council. Precedence.—This important subject has been fully dealt with, and the Lists may be relied on as authoritative. The Peers, Baronets, and Knights, and the Companions of the several Orders of Knighthood are placed according to their relative rank; and there is given a Scale of General or Social Precedence, and a List of the Maids of Honour to the Queen, with their relative Precedence. Tables of Precedence of Diplomatic Agents; Relative Rank of the Officers of the Navy and Army; and Precedence in the Colonies, the Dominion of Canada, and the Indian Empire are also supplied. There will also be found official Lists of THE ORDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE, THE ROYAL ORDER OF VICTORIA AND ALBERT, THE IMPERIAL ORDER OF THE CROWN OF INDIA, THE VICTORIA CROSS, THE ALBERT MEDAL, and THE ROYAL RED CROSS. The heraldic department includes not only the engravings of the arms of both PEERS and BARONETS, but also the written blazon or descriptions. To this work is added a Key, or comprehensive Alphabetical List, by means of which every titled personage, and many others, can be easily traced. Nearly 2,000 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £1 18s. (Published annually.)

"Has for more than half-a-century been regarded as containing a history of all the great titled families in the Empire. There is scarcely a page in the volume that is not full of interest. . . . . There is an excellent index to the work. . . . . Considerable space is devoted to the question of precedence."—Times.
